

Bridgeway Funds, Inc.
California Consumer Privacy Act Disclosure for California Residents
November 8, 2022

This Privacy Notice for California Residents (“CA Privacy Notice”) supplements the information contained in the Privacy Policy of Bridgeway Funds, Inc. (“Bridgeway”) (<https://bridgewayfunds.com/wp-content/uploads/sites/2/2022/10/Bridgeway-Funds-Privacy-Policy.pdf> (the “Privacy Policy”)) and only applies to residents of California.

This CA Privacy Notice explains how Bridgeway collects, uses, and discloses Personal Information relating to California residents that is subject to the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act of 2020 (collectively, the “CCPA”), related regulations, and other California privacy laws.

What is Personal Information?

“Personal Information,” as the term is defined in the CCPA, means information that relates to, describes, references, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household. Personal Information would generally not include information that has been de-identified or is in an aggregated form.

The CCPA does not apply to certain Personal Information, including Personal Information that is collected, processed, sold, or disclosed subject to the federal Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and implementing regulations (“GLBA”), which applies to the privacy practices of financial institutions like mutual funds. As a result, many of the rights granted by the CCPA do not apply with respect to Personal Information subject to the GLBA, such as Personal Information that we collect about California residents who invest in the Bridgeway Funds or who request or obtain information on financial products or services from us for personal, family or household purposes. This may include Personal Information that is defined as “Sensitive” under CCPA. Please note that we only use the information we collect that meets the definition of Sensitive Personal Information under the CCPA for which it was provided, and such information is not collected or processed for the purpose of inferring additional characteristics. The CCPA may also not apply where a financial institution shares your Personal Information with us, as that information could be subject to and protected by the GLBA.

Retention of Your Personal Information

Bridgeway retains each category of Personal Information described above based on multitude of factors including, without limitation, the data subjects' relationship with us, the nature and sensitivity of the information collected, and our data retention compliance obligations.

Bridgeway will not retain any Personal Information for longer than is necessary to accomplish the business purposes for which the information was collected.

No Sale of Personal Information

Bridgeway has not sold any Personal Information related to California Residents or shared it for any cross-context behavioral marketing purposes within the previous 12 months and will not sell any Personal Information.

Disclosure of Personal Information

We have disclosed the categories of Personal Information listed above in this CA Privacy Notice for the business purposes specified below. For more information regarding how Personal Information is shared, please review “Disclosure of Your Information” in Bridgeway’s Privacy Policy. <https://bridgewayfunds.com/wp-content/uploads/sites/2/2022/10/Bridgeway-Funds-Privacy-Policy.pdf>

Use of Personal Information

We collect the Personal Information listed in this CA Privacy Notice for the following business purposes all of which are reasonably necessary and proportionate to achieve the purpose for which the personal information was collected or processed:

- To complete the investment transaction for which the information was provided, including processing purchases, redemptions, and exchanges.
- To create, maintain, customize, and secure your account with us; to complete any account changes that you direct; and to provide you with notices and other disclosure documents related to your account such as prospectuses, proxy materials, and shareholder reports.
- To provide your account with support and respond to any inquiries you may have, including investigating and addressing your concerns and monitoring and improving our responses.
- To communicate with you about other financial products that we offer.
- To provide support, personalize, and develop our Website and other financial products and services.
- To perform identity verification and detect and prevent fraud.
- To help maintain the safety, security, and integrity of our Website, products and services, databases and other technology assets, and business.
- For testing, research, analysis, and product development, including to develop and improve our Website, products, and services.

- To respond to law enforcement requests and as required by applicable law, court order, or governmental regulations.
- As described to you when collecting your Personal Information or as otherwise set forth in the CCPA.
- To evaluate or conduct a merger, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all of our assets.

We will not collect additional categories of Personal Information or use Personal Information we collected for materially different, unrelated, or incompatible purposes without providing you notice.

Your California Rights and Choices

If you are a California resident, you have certain rights regarding your Personal Information. This section describes those rights and explains how to exercise those rights.

Access to Specific Information and Data Portability Rights

You have the right to request that we disclose, free of charge, the following about our collection and use of your Personal Information over the past 12 months:

- The categories of Personal Information we collected about you.
- The categories of sources for the Personal Information we collected about you.
- Our business or commercial purpose for collecting that Personal Information.
- The categories of third parties with whom we share that Personal Information.
- The specific pieces of Personal Information we collected about you (also called a data portability request).

Correction of Inaccurate Personal Information Rights

You have the right to request Bridgeway to correct any inaccurate Personal Information that Bridgeway maintains about you, considering the nature of the Personal Information and the purposes of the processing of that Personal Information.

Deletion Request Rights

You have the right to request that we delete any of your Personal Information that we collected from you, subject to certain exceptions permitted by the CCPA. For example, we may deny your deletion request for such reasons, including but not limited to retaining any information necessary for us to complete the transaction for which we collected the Personal Information, providing a service that you requested, taking actions reasonably anticipated within the context of our ongoing business relationship with you, detecting security incidents, protecting against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activity, or prosecuting those responsible for such activities; or complying with a legal obligation.

Non-Discrimination Rights

Bridgeway may not discriminate against you because you have exercised any of your rights under the CCPA, including:

- Denying you goods or services.
- Charging you different prices or rates for goods or services, including through granting discounts or other benefits or imposing penalties.
- Providing you with a different level or quality of goods or services.
- Suggesting that you may receive a different price or rate for goods or services or a different level or quality of goods or services.

Bridgeway may, however, charge different prices or offer different rates, or a different quality or level of goods or services, if that difference is reasonably related to the value provided to Bridgeway by your Personal Information.

Exercising Access, Data Portability, Correction, and Deletion Rights

To exercise the rights listed above, contact us at:

- Bridgeway Funds, Inc.
c/o BNY Mellon Investment Servicing
P.O. Box 9860
Providence, RI 02940-8060
- or via our toll-free number: 800-661-3550

Only you, or someone legally authorized to act on your behalf, may make a request related to your Personal Information. You may also make a verifiable consumer request on behalf of your minor child.

When you make a request, Bridgeway may take steps to verify your identity before responding to your request. Accordingly, Bridgeway may take any or all of the following steps:

- Require you to provide sufficient information to allow us to reasonably verify you are the person about whom we collected Personal Information.
- Utilize our normal verification processes for our existing products and services based on your existing relationship with Bridgeway.

We cannot respond to your request or provide you with Personal Information if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm the Personal Information relates to you. We may also decline to honor your request where the Personal Information that we maintain about you is not subject to the CCPA's access and or deletion rights.

As described by CCPA and its regulations, you may designate an authorized agent to make a request on your behalf. You may make such a designation by providing the agent with written permission to act on your behalf. As permitted by law, we may take steps to verify your own identity in response to a request, even if you choose to use an agent.

Response Timing and Format

We endeavor to respond to a verifiable consumer request within forty-five (45) days of its receipt. If we require more time, we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing. Please note, we may refuse to act on your request if such request is manifestly unfounded or excessive.
