

Bridgeway Funds, Inc.
Privacy Policy
February 16, 2023

As the investment adviser and administrator for Bridgeway Funds, Inc. (the “Funds”), Bridgeway Capital Management, LLC (the “Adviser”) invests the assets of the Funds and manages their day-to-day business. On behalf of the Funds and the Adviser (collectively, “Bridgeway”), we make the following assurances regarding your privacy.

This policy describes the types of information we may collect from you or that you may provide when you visit our website, bridgewayfunds.com (our “Website”), and our practices for collecting, using, maintaining, protecting, and disclosing that information.

Please read this policy carefully to understand our policies and practices regarding your information and how we will treat it.

Bridgeway's Commitment to You

We work hard to respect the privacy of your personal and financial data.

Not Using Your Personal Data for our Financial Gain

Bridgeway has never sold Personal Information (as defined below) of its shareholders or anyone else who visits our Website to any other party, and we have no plans to do so in the future. As a Fund shareholder, you compensate the Adviser through a management and administrative fee; this is how we earn our money for managing yours.

We'll Keep You Informed

As required by federal law, we will notify shareholders of our Privacy Policy annually. We reserve the right to modify this policy at any time, but rest assured that if we make a material change, we will promptly notify all shareholders. All users of our Website, including shareholders, can access our Privacy Policy from the Bridgeway Funds' Website.

By accessing or using the Bridgeway Funds' Website, you agree to this Privacy Policy, and your continued use of the Bridgeway Funds' Website after we make changes is deemed to be acceptance of those changes, so please check the policy periodically for updates.

The Information We Collect About You

You typically provide Personal Information when you complete a Bridgeway account application or when you request a transaction that involves Bridgeway, either directly or through a fund supermarket. This information may include your:

- Name, address (including e-mail address), and phone numbers
- Social security or taxpayer identification number
- Birth date and beneficiary information (for IRA applications)

- Basic trust document information (for trusts only)
- Copy of your driver's license or passport
- Account balance
- Investment activity

In addition, by using Bridgeway Funds' Website, we may collect the following information automatically as you visit our Website through the use of cookies and other tracking technologies:

- Information about your internet address (which provides information on your geographic location).
- Information about your device, browser type, or operating system.

The foregoing bullet points are collectively referred to as "Personal Information."

How We Use Your Personal Information

As emphasized above, we do not sell information about current or former shareholders, their accounts, or anyone else who uses our Website to third parties. We use your information, including any Personal Information, primarily to complete your investment transactions (including processing purchases, redemptions, and exchanges) or account changes that you direct. It may be necessary to provide your Personal Information to trusted companies, individuals, or groups not affiliated with Bridgeway. For example, if you ask to transfer assets from another financial institution to the Funds, we will need to provide certain information about you to that company to complete the transaction. In addition, we use the information that you provide to us:

- To create, maintain, customize, and secure your account with us; to complete any account changes that you direct; and to provide you with notices and other disclosure documents related to your account, such as prospectuses, proxy materials, and shareholder reports.
- To provide your account with support and respond to any inquiries you may have, including investigating and addressing your concerns and monitoring and improving our responses.
- To communicate with you about other financial products that we offer.
- To support, personalize, and develop our Website and financial products and services.
- To perform identity verification and detect and prevent fraud.
- To help maintain the safety, security, and integrity of our Website, products and services, databases and other technology assets, and business.
- For testing, research, analysis, and product development, including to develop and improve our Website, products, and services.

- To respond to law enforcement requests and as required by applicable law, court order, or governmental regulations.
- To evaluate or conduct a merger, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all of our assets.
- To notify you about changes to this policy.
- In any other way, we may describe when you provided this information or any other purpose with your consent.

Disclosure of Your Information

When such disclosure is necessary or permitted by applicable law, we may disclose the information that you provide to us, including any Personal Information:

- To non-affiliated contractors, service providers, or other third parties, we use to support our business and perform services for us, such as processing orders for share purchases and redemptions and distribution of shareholder letters. In all such cases, we provide the third party with only the information necessary to carry out its assigned responsibilities (in the case of shareholder letters, only your name, and address) and direct such third parties to only use your information for the purpose it was provided. We require these third parties to treat your Personal Information with the same high degree of confidentiality that we do.
- To a buyer or other successor in the event of a merger, divestiture, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all of Bridgeway's assets.
- To fulfill the purpose for which you provided it.
- For any other purpose disclosed by us when you provided this information or any other purpose with your consent.

We may also disclose your Personal Information:

- To comply with any court order, law, or legal process, including responding to any government or regulatory request.
- If we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to protect the rights, property, or safety of Bridgeway, our customers, or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organizations to protect your account from fraud.
- If you direct us to do so.

How We Safeguard Your Personal Information

We restrict access to your information, including Personal Information, to those Bridgeway representatives who need to know the information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your Personal Information.

What You Can Do

The safety and security of your Personal Information also depends on you. You are responsible for keeping your login information for our Website confidential. For your protection, we recommend that you do not provide your account information, user name, or password to anyone except a Bridgeway representative as appropriate for a transaction or to set up an account. If you become aware of any suspicious activity relating to your account, please contact us immediately.

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we do our best to protect your Personal Information, we cannot guarantee the security of your Personal Information transmitted to our Website. Any transmission of Personal Information is at your own risk.

Fund Marketplaces or Other Brokerage Firms

Most Bridgeway shareholders purchase their shares through fund marketplaces. Please contact those firms for their policies concerning privacy issues.

Your California Privacy Rights

If you are a California resident, California law may provide you with additional rights regarding your Personal Information. To learn more about your California privacy rights, visit:

Your Nevada Privacy Rights

Nevada residents who wish to exercise their sale opt-out rights under Nevada Revised Statutes Chapter 603A may submit a request to funds@bridgeway.com. Please note, however, we do not currently sell data triggering that statute's opt-out requirements.

International Visitors

Our Funds' services, including our Website, are based in the United States of America, and all information we collect, including Personal Information, is securely stored on servers located in the USA. By accessing our services, you acknowledge and consent to the transfer of your personal information to the USA, which may not provide the same level of data protection or data rights as your home country.

Children under 16

Our Website is not directed toward children. Except to the extent required to provide our products or services to you, we do not knowingly collect or utilize information from children under the age of 16.
