

NEW ACCOUNT APPLICATION

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the U.S. government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies persons opening accounts. To comply, we require your name, address, date of birth and governmentissued identification number (generally, a Social Security Number) and other information that may help us identify you. We may also ask for copies of related documentation, and we may consult third-party databases to help verify your identity.

If you do not provide us with this information, we will be unable to open your account, and any application that does not include the required information will be rejected and returned to you.

Please note that most states have adopted "abandoned property" laws. A large number of these laws include a "no contact" provision, under which, if we are unable to demonstrate direct contact with you over a specified period (typically 3 years), your account(s) may be considered abandoned property. In some cases, your state laws could mandate that Bridgeway transfer your account(s) to the state. In order to avoid this outcome, we recommend that you contact us on at least an annual basis to maintain an active status for your account(s).

LEGAL ENTITY ADDENDUM AND CERTIFICATION

COMPLETE THIS ADDENDUM AND CERTIFICATION IF YOUR ACCOUNT INCLUDES A CORPORATION, PARTNERSHIP, LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY OR OTHER LEGAL ENTITY.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

What is this form?

To help the U.S. government fight financial crime, U.S. Treasury Financial Crime Network regulation requires certain financial institutions obtain, verify, and record information about the beneficial owners of legal entity customers. Legal entities can be abused to disguise involvement in terrorist financing, money laundering, tax evasion, corruption, fraud, and other financial crimes. Requiring the disclosure of key individuals who own or control a legal entity (i.e., the beneficial owners) helps law enforcement investigate and prosecute these crimes.

Who has to complete this form?

To help the U.S. government fight financial crime, U.S. Treasury Financial Crime Network regulation requires certain financial institutions obtain, verify, and record information about the beneficial owners of legal entity customers. Legal entities can be abused to disguise involvement in terrorist financing, money laundering, tax evasion, corruption, fraud, and other financial crimes. Requiring the disclosure of key individuals who own or control a legal entity (i.e., the beneficial owners) helps law enforcement investigate and prosecute these crimes.

This form must be completed by the person opening a new account on behalf of a legal entity with any of the following U.S. financial institutions: (i) a bank or credit union; (ii) a broker or dealer in securities; (iii) a mutual fund; (iv) a futures commission merchant; or (v) an introducing broker in commodities.

For the purposes of this form, a legal entity includes a corporation, limited liability company, or other entity that is created by a filing of a public document with a Secretary of State or similar office, a general partnership, and any similar business entity formed in the United States or a foreign country. Legal entity does not include sole proprietorships, unincorporated associations, or natural persons opening accounts on their own behalf.

What information do I have to provide?

This form requires you to provide the names, address, date of birth and Social Security number (or passport number or other similar information, in the case of Non-U.S. Persons) for the following individuals (i.e., the beneficial owners):

(i) Each individual, if any, who owns, directly or indirectly, 25 percent or more of the equity interests of the legal entity customer (e.g., each natural person who owns 25 percent or more of the shares of a corporation); and
(ii) An individual with significant responsibility for managing the legal entity customer (e.g., a Chief Executive Office, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Managing Member, General Partner, President, Vice President, or Treasurer).

The number of individuals that satisfy this definition of "beneficial owner" may vary. Under section (i), depending on the factual circumstances, up to four individuals (but as few as zero) may need to be identified. Regardless of the number of individuals identified under section (i), you must provide the identifying information on one individual under section (ii). It is possible that in some circumstances the same individual might be identified under both sections (e.g., the President of Acme, Inc. who also holds a 30% equity interest). Thus, a completed form will contain the identifying information of at least one individual (under section (ii) ), and up to five individuals (i.e., one individual under section (ii) and four 25 percent equity holders under section (i) ).

The financial institution may also ask to see a copy of a driver's license or other identifying document for each beneficial owner listed on this form.
